

Camp services lead

(1 role available)

Role:

The purpose of this role is to help camp run smoothly behind the scenes by overseeing shared services such as catering, equipment, and site organisation.

Terms of office:

The role will be for the planning process and duration of the camp in 2027.

Responsible to:

Camp lead team

Working with:

This role is part of the Camp 2027 event team. You will work with other members of the event team, the camp project team and Girlguiding Scotland staff members.

Who can do this role?

The Camp services lead can be any adult member aged 18+. Previous experience of large-scale events is desirable.

Personal qualities:

- Having experience of large-scale camps would be advantageous
- Good organisational and communication skills
- Friendly and open
- Ability and willingness to work as part of a team
- Ability to inspire and engage others
- Experience of leading a team
- Willingness to travel to meet other volunteers

Responsibilities:

- Coordinate a team of site services volunteers.
- Coordinate camp services such as catering, water, waste, and equipment.
- Work with the event team to plan the set-up, layout and pack-down of the camp, as well as daily routines.
- Manage high standards of cleanliness and hygiene throughout the camp site.
- Ensure the services team comply with Girlguiding requirements such as safeguarding.
- Other duties to be agreed by camp event team.

How to apply

If you have any questions about this role or need any help to apply please contact megan.burt@girlguiding-scot.org.uk or phone 0131 226 4511.

To apply, complete our application form by 11.59pm on Wednesday 1 April.

We will contact county commissioners for references and will look to hold informal chats as soon as possible after the closing date.