

Camp activities lead

(1 role available)

Role:

The purpose of this role is to lead the planning and smooth delivery of activities across camp, making sure girls have a fun, safe, and well-organised programme.

Terms of office:

The role will be for the planning process and duration of the camp in 2027.

Responsible to:

Camp lead team

Working with:

This role is part of the Camp 2027 event team. You will work with other members of the event team, the camp project team and Girlguiding Scotland staff members.

Who can do this role?

The Camp activities lead can be any adult member aged over 18. Previous experience of large-scale events is desirable.

Personal qualities:

- Having experience of large-scale camps would be advantageous
- Good organisational and communication skills
- Friendly and open
- Ability and willingness to work as part of a team
- Ability to inspire and engage others
- Experience of leading a team
- Willingness to travel to meet other volunteers

Responsibilities:

- Coordinate the camp activity programme and daily timetable.
- Support leaders and volunteers running activities.
- Ensure activities are safe, inclusive, and suitable for all ages and abilities.
- Ensure equipment and spaces are prepared and used safely.
- Adapt plans when needed due to weather or wellbeing.
- Share clear instructions and updates with the camp team.
- Ensure the activities team comply with Girlguiding requirements such as safeguarding.
- Other duties to be agreed by camp event team.

How to apply

If you have any questions about this role or need any help to apply please contact megan.burt@girlguiding-scot.org.uk or phone 0131 226 4511.

To apply, complete our application form by Monday 20 April.

We will contact county commissioners for references and will look to hold informal chats as soon as possible after the closing date.